

Providence Athletic Club Parent Agreement

I, _____ as a parent of _____, a player in Providence Athletic Club, agree to fulfill to the best of my abilities the terms and conditions that are displayed in this parent agreement and contract for as long as my child is apart of PAC.

- a. I will understand my priorities, Family, Academics, and Sport. In that order.
- b. I will not base my child's success on wins or losses, but on overall development
- c. I will worry about controlling the things that are in my control.
- d. I will abide by and understand the 24 Hour Rule – All parents must wait 24 hours to ask the coach any questions in regards to game related topics, playing time, game outcome, positional play.
- e. If I have a discrepancy with a coach, I will not approach unless a third party is present to witness the discussion
- f. I will follow the rule of - *NO COACHING FROM THE SIDELINE!
- g. I will encourage my player to take the responsibility and communicate with the coach when they have questions in regards to their development, playing time and will only approach the coach after my child has spoken to the coach.
- h. I will have my player arrive for games at the appointed time by the coach.
- i. I will have my player arrive on time to practice.
- j. I will contact the team manager or coach if my player is going to miss a practice or a game.
- k. I will encourage and support my child and the entire team in a POSITIVE fashion.
- l. If I can not control my words or actions to the coach, player, or officials during the game, I may be asked to leave the game
- m. I understand that my lack of self-control could result in my player being benched
- n. I will remain on the parents sideline during games unless called or asked over by the coach.
- o. I will encourage my player to eat properly before, in between and after matches.
- p. I will remain off and away from the field during all practices.

Parent Signature

Father

Mother